Rick:

I hope this finds you well. We haven't spoken for a spell. I spoke with Tami a couple days ago and she shared your email for me to invite you to present at our Village Leadership Workshop held Dec 8th in Anchorage in the morning. I think the hot topics would be the watershed assessment update and traditional knowledge. Our audience is about 200-300 tribal, city, and native corporation villagers coming in to town for Christmas shopping and meetings. We give them a BBNC Christmas party at the end of all the meetings.

Let me know if you can join us at that time. I extended a more intimate meeting with BBNC board earlier in the week if you are interested on the 6th.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Regards,

Tiel
